

Media Policy

Any media representative must be referred to the Pastor or the President of the Board of Trustees. They are the only people who are authorized to speak on behalf of Peoples Church Unitarian Universalist. Members may be invited by the Pastor or President to speak to reporters in specific situations.